
To Apply

Enrollment is limited. Early application is encouraged. Please return your completed application to:

Professor Colleen Berry
Merrifield 319 (Languages)
Stop 8198
University of North Dakota
Grand Forks, ND 58202-8198

The final deadline for receipt of all application materials is:

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 2011

Program Fees $2,800

Program fees cover all hotels in China; in-country transportation from Beijing to Xi'an to Shanghai; all hotel transfers; all tours and tour guides; all museum entrance fees; most breakfasts; a farewell dinner; Chinese visa ($130); non-refundable UND Study Abroad application fee ($50); and UND-required medical insurance ($50).

Program fees do not include the following additional costs to students: summer school tuition (6 credits); travel to and from China; U.S. passport; inoculations or other medical costs; most meals and entertainment in China.

(The fees are based on the 2011 costs and are subject to change until the trip is booked.)

FOR APPLICATIONS CONTACT

j.colleen.berry@email.und.edu

or download application at:

<http://arts-sciences.und.edu/languages/chinese/chinese-study-abroad.cfm>

Chatting with a local water brush artist

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

PLEASE CONTACT:

Dr. Colleen Berry, Chinese Studies
Merrifield Hall 319, 777-4661
j.colleen.berry@email.und.edu

2012 CHINA SUMMER STUDY PROGRAM

BEIJING XI'AN
SHANGHAI

MAY 17 - JUNE 11, 2012

Dragon practice at the Nine Dragon Wall

Sponsored by the College of Business and Public Administration

University of North Dakota

UND China Summer Study Program 2012

REQUIRED COURSES

ONE SPRING COURSE at UND
TWO SUMMER COURSES in China

This exciting faculty-directed study abroad program is open to all UND students regardless of major and offers an in-depth examination of China, a region of growing global importance. With special emphasis on the practical development of cross-cultural business skills, the program helps students gain an in-depth understanding of China, its language, history, politics, legal system, customs and culture. Professors Colleen Berry and Victoria Beard are the instructors for this program in which students play an active role in designing their own fieldwork projects and itineraries.

Possible Activities & Sites

Beijing

- Great Wall
- Forbidden City
- Summer Palace
- Tiananmen Square
- Temple of Heaven
- Capital Museum
- Kungfu Program
- Panjiayuan Market

Shanghai

- Yuyuan Garden and Old City
- 1st National CCP Congress Museum
- Jade Buddha Temple
- Residence of Sun Yat-sen
- Shanghai Museum
- Shanghai World Financial Center
- HuangPu River cruise
- Shanghai Acrobats
- Urban Planning Museum
- Xintiandi
- Shikumen Museum
- Ming-style canal town of Zhujiajiao
- Optional trip to Hangzhou

Xian

- Terracotta Soldiers & Horses
- Forest of Stone Tablets
- Shaanxi History Museum
- Qianling Mausoleum

Program ends June 11th in Shanghai

After the program ends, students may return directly to the US or may continue traveling independently to other parts of China, Hong Kong, Japan, Thailand, Vietnam, India, and/or Europe.

Course Registration

All participants must enroll in three courses as follows:

Spring 2012 (3 credits at UND)

Introduction to Business in China
MW 3:00-4:15 PM

Summer 2012 (6 credits in China)

China Then and Now
Business Fieldwork in Shanghai

Application and Program Fee Payment Schedule

December 1, 2011.....	$ 200
January 18, 2012.....	$ 700
February 15, 2012.....	$ 700
March 7, 2012	$ 600
April 11, 2012.....	$ 600

In addition, students should plan to purchase their roundtrip air ticket to China (est. $1400) before the end of February when rates tend to increase.

Tuition for the two summer courses in China is payable according to the normal UND summer sessions tuition and fee payment schedule.

Students may apply for an increase in their spring and summer financial aid package based on increased program costs. They may also be eligible to apply for BPA travel grants.

No inoculations are currently required for travel in China. However, Hepatitis A and B are highly recommended for travel in Asia. Please consult with your doctor early.