

College of Business and Public Administration

Department of Entrepreneurship Graduate Faculty

The UND Entrepreneurship Program and its courses are uniquely designed to provide students from across campus the chance to learn more about how to identify and pursue entrepreneurial opportunities and put creativity and innovation to work.

Larry Pate, Ph.D.
larry.pate@business.und.edu

Rank:	Professor Burwell Endowed Chair in Entrepreneurship Department Chair
Recent Courses Taught:	ENTR 385 Venture Initiation MGMT 575 Entrepreneurship Strategy
Major Fields of Study:	Organizational behavior, Social psychology
Research Interests:	Decision-Making, Thinking and Problem Solving, Creativity and Innovation, Ethics and Ethical Leadership, Creating/Managing Organizational Change, and applications of each of these areas to entrepreneurial ventures