Safety Topic

Deer Hunting Season
The north dakota deer bow hunting season opened last week friday, September 4th at 12pm. While enjoying time hunting in the great North Dakota outdoors, it is important to value your safety by using the following advise:
- Be careful to not get lost in woods. It is good to note the route you came in so you know how to get out.

- Use caution when hanging tree stands
- Use insect repellent
- Use caution where you point the arrow as the broadhead is sharp.
- Watch out for predators such as mountain lions

Project Countdown: 87 Weeks to Certificate of Occupancy

Quality Corner

Material Inspections: When material is delivered on site, it is inspected upon arrival. Inspections are conducted to verify that proper quantities are delivered and to confirm the material delivered is in good condition. Doing these inspections helps ensure quality materials are being used on the project.

DID YOU KNOW?

Based on minimum average temperature, Grand Forks North Dakota is the 2nd coldest city in the US. Just behind Fairbanks, Alaska.
